

Torbay

in south-west England

Paignton is at the heart of the English Riviera in the beautiful south west of England. Paignton, Brixham and Torquay together form Torbay, one of Britain's most popular seaside resorts with attractive scenery, a great atmosphere and some of the best weather in Britain.

Torbay has been a popular holiday destination for centuries and features historic sites going back thousands of years.

Torbay has a population of about 130,000 and attracts 1.5 million visitors every year. The Riviera has many tourist attractions.

Torbay's towns range from a quaint fishing port to a busy harbour surrounded by cafés, clubs and bars.
